

THE PHILADELPHIA REENTRY COALITION

Communication, Collaboration, & Capacity-Building to Improve Reentry in Philadelphia

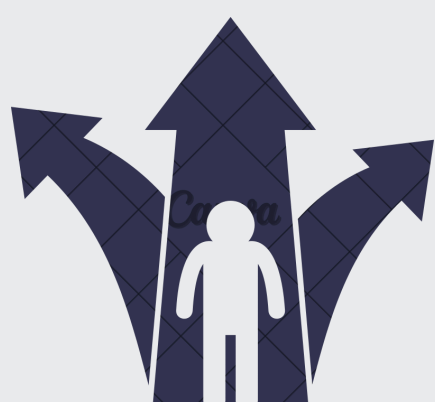

The Philadelphia Reentry Coalition (PRC) is a network of 180+ members—including government agencies, service providers, researchers, advocates, and returning citizens—working together to improve reentry outcomes in Philadelphia.

PRC VISION

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, & INCLUSION

Centering lived experiences and justice in all PRC work.

DIGNITY & OPPORTUNITY

Valuing justice-involved individuals and supporting their path to prosperity.

REMOVING BARRIERS & SILOS

Supporting collaboration to wholly support justice-impacted individuals.

For More Information about the Philadelphia Reentry Coalition (PRC), See Below:

<http://www.phlreentrycoalition.org>

philareentrycoalition@gmail.com
Kierra.Nocho@phila.gov

Kierra Nocho, PRC Coordinator | Tel: (215) 683-3370

The Philadelphia Reentry Coalition (PRC) operates under the City of Philadelphia's Office of Reentry Partnerships (ORP), the City's hub for reentry resources, trainings, and referrals.